Musicians:

Igor Cognolato, piano
Burghard Tölke, violin

The two renowned and internationally sought-after musicians Igor Cognolato and Burghard Tölke present a truly fabulous programme: music of the Romantic period, solo pieces and duets that delight the ears and give space to the soul. And they are doing so for a good cause: the proceeds of this concert are dedicated to the Elisabethbrot, the food distribution of the Elisabethinen for needy people in Ungargasse. Since the foundation of the monastery in 1709, the Elisabethinen have lived a warm hospitality and even today 70-100 free meals are distributed daily to people who cannot satisfy their hunger. Your donation helps to maintain this important supply.

Afterwards, a tasty and delicious buffet awaits you as well as many lively conversations. We warmly invite you!
